dms Organization Accepting Applications For 2009 Scholarship Award

GEORGE TOWN, Grand Cayman – Cayman Islands-based business conglomerate, dms Organization Ltd. (dms), is proud to announce that the application process for its 2009 scholarship awards is now officially underway. The scholarships are awarded annually to Caymanians who want to pursue an academic or technical/vocational degree that will benefit the Cayman Islands.

“dms has an ongoing commitment to supporting the development of individuals who strive to continually better themselves through education and training,” commented Vice President Krista Pell. “This scholarship is aimed to further the education of the recipient, and to encourage them to utilize their acquired learning in the local community.”

Applications for the dms scholarship are due by the 30th of April. All applicants must be Caymanian and in good health, at least 18 years of age and be of good character. In order to receive the scholarship, the student must produce proof of acceptance into their school or university and demonstrate their need for funding.

Students who are currently enrolled but are in need of funding are also eligible to receive the scholarship. Extra consideration will be given to those students who are in areas of study relevant to the dms conglomerate and its subsidiaries.

“We are so pleased to sponsor this scholarship for a member of our community and we would like encourage all who are eligible to apply,” remarked Mrs. Pell. “Education coupled with experience enables individuals to be better equipped to achieve greater success in the working world. This scholarship opportunity, along with our other academic endeavors, is a part of dms’ long-standing effort to further the cause of education in the Cayman Islands.”

Applications for the scholarship can be obtained by contacting Krista Pell in the dms’ Human Resources department at 345-943-7665 or by emailing kpell@dms.com.ky.
